

CODE OF CONDUCT

HARASSMENT

Future defines harassment as including but not limited to: offensive verbal comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, sexual images in public spaces, deliberate intimidation, stalking, following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention. Attendees found to be engaging in behaviour which constitutes harassment will be expected to immediately cease such behaviour and will immediately be removed from the venue without refund. If you or anyone else is being harassed, please report it immediately to an event team member, which can be identified by the light blue t-shirts.

CODE OF CONDUCT

EXHIBITORS AND SPONSORS

Exhibitors at the venue are subject to these same anti-harassment policies, which are detailed above. In particular, exhibitors should not create a sexualised environment or engage in anti-competitive behaviour such as slandering other brands. As with individual attendees, exhibitors found to be behaving in a harassing manner will be immediately expelled from the venue, without refund or return of any sponsorship they provided to the event in the form of money or goods.

CODE OF CONDUCT

PROJECTS

Projects that are worked on during the conference should be attendees' original work and also be completed to the best of their ability. The names of each project should not be identical or similar to the names of any similar existing project. Projects should also not copy the layout and design of any existing products. Furthermore, projects should not encourage drug/alcohol abuse, underage sexual activity, or racial/religious hatred. At the end of the event, projects will be scored based on design, originality and code efficiency.